

Joshua Critchlow

Senior Associate

Tax

Primary practice

Tax

About Joshua Critchlow

Josh advises corporates, sponsors and financial institutions on the tax aspects of a wide range of transactions.

These include private and public M&A, joint ventures, financings, debt restructurings, and corporate reorganisations. He also advises on tax disputes and litigation.

Josh acts for clients in a range of sectors, but he has a particular focus on energy and natural resources. He has spent time seconded to ExxonMobil, where he worked on a number of upstream oil and gas transactions.

Josh speaks English and Portuguese.

Recent work

- Advising Siccar Point Energy and its sponsors, Blackstone and Bluewater, on the sale of Siccar Point Energy to Ithaca Energy for up to $1.46bn
- Advising TPG on the disposal of Arlington Business Parks to Brookfield for £714m
- Advising Mubadala Petroleum on its acquisition of a stake in the Israeli Tamar offshore gas field from Delek
- Advising Occidental Petroleum on its Ghana sale to Kosmos and GNPC
- Advising Public Sector Pension Investment Board, including on transactions involving Angel Trains and Alpha Trains
- Advising ZPG on its acquisition of Confused.com and European insurance-focused comparison platforms from Admiral plc
- Advising AB InBev on the disposal of its Australian brewery business and related IP licensing arrangements to Asahi for $11bn
- Advising ConocoPhillips, Total and Eni on their respective acquisitions of interests in the Teeside oil terminal from Equinor
- Advising Neptune Energy (backed by funds advised by Carlyle and CVC) on its US$3.9bn acquisition of ENGIE E&P International

Qualifications

Education

Brasenose College, Oxford University

Contact Joshua

joshua.critchlow@freshfields.com

London

100 Bishopsgate

London

T +44 20 7936 4000

F +44 20 7832 7001